of murdering Darg2 Sing, a Hindu, on October 22.

Dr. John W. McIntosh, who was the first witness called for the prosecution testified in technical terms as to the wound inflicted by the pistol shot, the course of the builet, and the recovery of the 22-calibre pellet at the post mortem examination which he had made. The builet had penetrated the breast-bone-in-a-downward direction.

Dr. McTaylsh corrolorated the evidence of Dr. McIntosh, differing only in his opinion that the builet was deflected after piercing the skin.

Mr. C. E. Gilbert, proprietor of the Spokane rooming-house, where the tragedy occurred, gave-evidence as to hearing a shot fired, and observing a man rush past him in the ball, with the immediate discovery of the prostrate Hindu lying in the hallway, near the door of his own-room.

His daughter, Miss Alice Gilbert, aged thirteen, gave corroborative evidence. Both said the deceased was gentlemanly Hindu, neatly dressed, and somewhat superior to the average East Indian; Another Hindu had been with Durga Sing, but it was the latter who engaged and paid for the room. Neither Hindu had been seen again till the shooting occurred and then there was only one, the deceased.

Police Officers AlcGuish and Gillis testified of their treatment of the Hindu after the alarm had been received, and their delivery of the injured man to the caga of St. Paul's Hospital.

Detective Jackson had gone with the ambulance to the Spokane rooming-house at 7.45 on the evoning of October 22. He minutely described the pdistion of the furniture in room 3, which had been occupied by the Hindu. After the ambulance had borne away the injured man he went to the station and got. Detective McLeed, and returned to the room to search for cartridges. He found one exploded shell about two feet under, the bed, and are turned to the room to search for cartridges.
